

Encouraging and supporting community renewables

©Countryside Agency/Charlie Hedley 03-4387

OUTLINE OF TALK:

- Forest of Bowland AONB
- How we support communities
- How we have encouraged renewables
- Project examples and best practice

Sustainable Development Fund

- Grants and support to communities, business and schools projects since 2005
- Seminars and training courses
- Evaluation report 2009

Case studies and study tours

Website and other promotion

Encouraging and supporting community renewables

- Current hydro feasibility study – supporting communities, businesses and farmers
- Renewable energy position statement for the AONB to encourage micro and small scale renewable energy developments within a protected landscape

Sustainable Tourism

- Encouragement of renewables and energy efficiency through the Lancashire Green Tourism Project and Green Tourism Business Scheme (GTBS) accreditation
- Good practice case studies
- Study tours

Encouraging and supporting community renewables

Encouraging and supporting community renewables

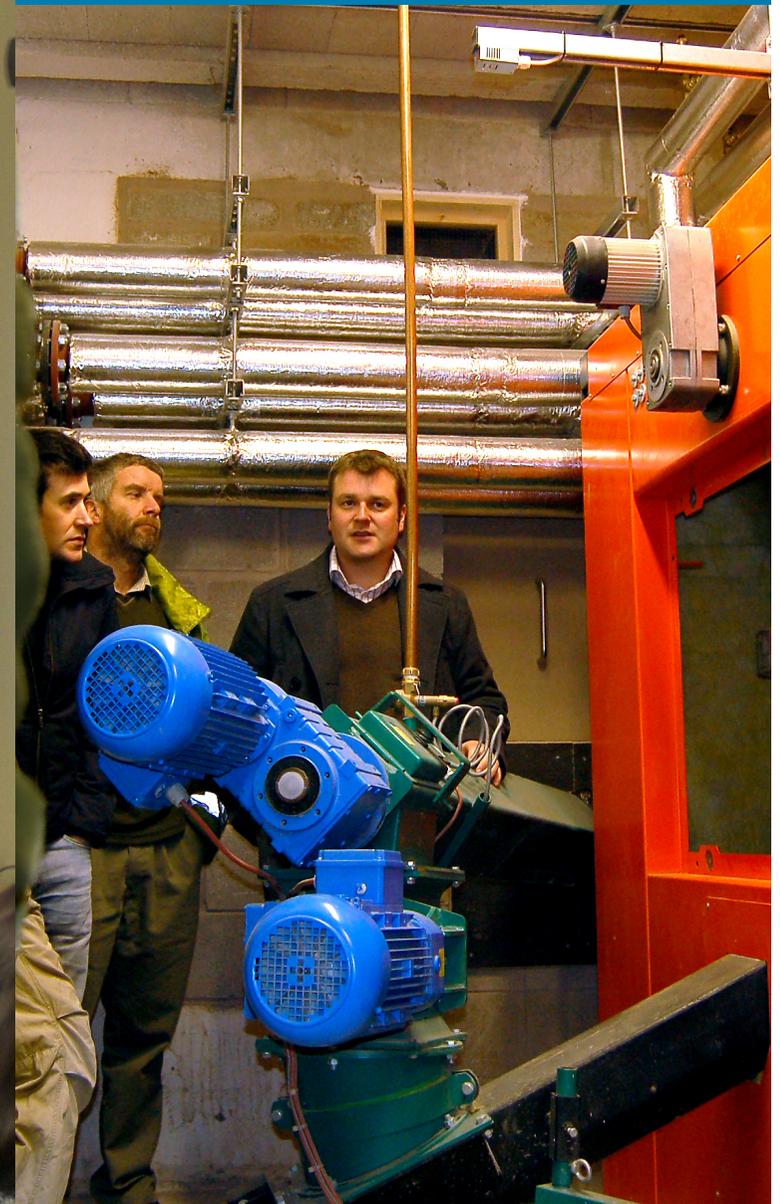

Encouraging and supporting community renewables

Encouraging and supporting community renewables

Encouraging and supporting community renewables

Encouraging and supporting community renewables

Cathy.hopley@lancashire.gov.uk

www.forestofbowland.com

FOREST OF BOWLAND

Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty